Dear Solyphar, Your welcome
P.C. reached me this morning.
I have already told you how much pleasure we had in meeting the Snouches. He confirmed me in some of my heresies as to the understanding of the Qus' on and could not translate a passage in Sherishi in which I, too, had failed — a great comfort to me! I never saw Brosnan's ed. of Jahiz's أخبار — I must get it. These little articles take a terrible amount of time. Just now I am at Idj Tihad. My former pupil and present colleague Anoussian is working at Turkish history and has reason to doubt the knowledge of Turkish of N Jorga at Bucharest. Does he know Turkish? He evidently does not really know Arabic.
We should be glad of anything you can tell us about him and his book.

This summer we shall again be in France, trying to rest. We sail May 23rd and go to Cook & Son, Paris, will find us.

you and yours — I am the only one
